B52s Bomb Red Hideouts Along Laos Frontier

SAIGON (AP) — The Communist "seem to have temporarily run out of steam," Gen. William C. Westmoreland said today as the ground war in South Vietnam slipped into another one of its periodic lulls.

Only small, scattered ground clashes were reported. But Westmoreland, the top American commander in Vietnam, said he anticipates "a resurgence of enemy initiatives just before or after Tet," the Vietnamese Lunar New Year Jan. 30.

"Most of the Communist initiative have political motives," Westmoreland said in an interview. "Tet is an emotional time when families and friends gather. Any display of strength would benefit the enemy both psychologically and politically. They like to develop the image of strength and try to give the people the impression they're winning."

Trying to check or blunt the anticipated Communist offensive, U.S. B52 heavy bombers blasted the buildup area in the northwest corner of the country again Tuesday.

The eight-engine Stratofortresses, in their fourth raid on the area in two days, dropped 750-pound bombs in patterns designed to break up troop concentration and rip open the jungle to reveal enemy hideaways.

The big bombers returned this morning to hammer suspected North Vietnamese bunkers and fortified positions in the demilitarized zone three miles northwest of another allied strongpoint at Gio Linh, which anchors the eastern approaches to South Vietnam.

As further evidence of increased Communist movement along the northern frontier, U.S. headquarters reported that a Marine aerial observer spotted 30 armed enemy troops crossing an open area Tuesday night four miles west of the Con Thien Marine outpost, just to the west of Gio Linh. Fighter-bombers and artillery attacked, and the aerial observer reported 16 killed.

In other scattered clashes American troops reported 49 of the enemy and five Americans killed and 24 Americans wounded.

In the air war against North Vietnam, U.S. pilots flew 117 missions Tuesday in the continuing campaign against Red supply lines.

Deal With Cong A Must: Romney

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican presidential candidate and a group of influential Americans say in separate statements that if the Vietnam war is to be slowed down or stopped, the Communist Viet Cong must be dealt with politically.

Michigan Gov. George Romney, campaigning in New Hampshire, said Tuesday the Johnson administration should encourage South Vietnam to seek peace talks with the Viet Cong's political arm, the National Liberation Front. He said the NLF will have to be "reckoned with in any settlement in Vietnam."

A group of prominent citizens, including retired Army Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, said in New York any dangers involved in dealing politically with the NLF would not be as great as a long-time effort to destroy it.

This group, which studied the Vietnam situation under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, also proposed a halt to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

In a memorandum to President Johnson the group said the goal should be to "defend South Vietnam without surrender and without increasing the risks of a wider war."

The group said a bombing halt "would tend to shift international pressures from Washington to Hanoi."

It also urged that the Saigon government be pressured to take more military and political responsibility for pacification of South Vietnam, saying aid to South Vietnam should be made conditional on its fulfillment of such commitments.

Among those at the meeting, in addition to Gen. Ridgway, were Charles Y. Yost, deputy chief of the U.S. mission to the United Nations; Roger Hilsman, former assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, and Roswell Gilpatrick, former deputy secretary of defense.

Romney said his ideas on dealing with the Viet Cong wouldn't require formal recognition of the NLF. He said the Saigon government should be encouraged to talk quietly with NLF officials.

Romney said he would oppose imposition of a coalition government on South Vietnam if it resulted from agreement by the Saigon leaders and the Communists. But he added he would go along if it resulted from free elections.

The Michigan governor argued the most likely path to peace is his plan for internationally guaranteed neutralization of Vietnam and her neighbors.

A top administration spokesman said current U.S. war policy takes into account the security of the rest of Southeast Asia.

Quake Toll In Sicily Mounts; 1,000 Missing

SICILY (AP) — The unofficial earthquake toll in western Sicily rose to 337 today, with nearly 1,000 still missing, and most were women, children and aged.

Most of the able-bodied men of the 10 towns hardest hit are among the thousands of Italian laborers who leave home to find work.

The death count was mounting as crews dug desperately through mounds of rubble, and communications were restored to villages that had been isolated by the big earthquake Monday.

Giuseppa Impastato, 103 years old and known as "Little Grandmother," was found seriously injured in the rubble of her home in Montevago. She died on the way to a hospital 16 miles away.

An estimated 20,000 Sicilians were homeless.

Premier Aldo Moro met with his Cabinet to discuss the worst catastrophe to hit Sicily since the Messina earthquake of 1908 took 75,000 lives.

After shocks continued through Tuesday night, spreading more panic and keeping thousands out of doors, huddled in frozen fields and vineyards. Palermo, the regional capital was all but emptied of its half million inhabitants during the night.

The Palermo waterfront section known as St. Peter's was evacuated. Many buildings there showed cracks after an aftershock recorded at 8.5 on the 12-point Mercalli scale hit the city at nightfall Tuesday. It was the strongest tremor since the 9-point quake that caused the bulk of the deaths and damage Monday.

The Mercalli scale evaluates earthquakes on the basis of their effects on the landscape, structures and people. Nine points means weak masonry destroyed and ordinary masonry heavily damaged.

Despite the influx of tons of food, medicines, clothing and tents, many Sicilians still were without adequate shelter and food. Twenty persons with pneumonia from three successive nights outdoors were treated in the Trapani hospital.

The general threat to health increased. Rescue workers who could be spared from looking for survivors were ordered to clear out the decomposing carcasses of hundreds of horses, cows and other animals from the debris of barns.

Road Travel Gain Is Two Per Cent

LANSING (AP) — Motorists clocked an estimated 44.8 billion miles on Michigan's state highways, county roads and city streets in 1967, the State Highway Commission reports. The figure is an increase of 2 per cent, compared with 1966 when motorists drove an estimated 43.9 billion miles. It is the smallest gain in statewide travel since 1961 when the increase was 0.7 per cent.

Two Yank Officials Slain In Guatemala

GUATEMALA (AP) — A pro-Castro revolutionary organization said today that it was responsible for the machine gun slaying of the top two U.S. military officers in Guatemala.

A typewritten communique signed Rebel Armed Forces—FAR—said the U.S. military mission had "ordered the Guatemalan army to create groups of assassins" against guerrillas and the FAR "decided to mete out justice."

Firing from a speeding car into the Americans' car near the Guatemalan Air Force's headquarters Tuesday, machine-gunners killed U.S. Army Col. John D. Webber Jr., 47, and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Ernest A. Munro, 40, and wounded Army Sgt. Maj. John R. Forster, 42, and Marine Sgt. Harry L. Greene, 41.

In critical condition, Greene was reported in critical condition, but Forster was discharged from the hospital after treatment of an arm wound.

The Guatemalan Cabinet proclaimed a "state of alarm."

modified martial law—in an attempt to check a mounting wave of terrorism by both extreme rightists and extreme leftists as well as gangsters taking advantage of the political turmoil.

A burst of machine gun fire earlier Tuesday killed former Guatemalan congressman Alejandro Silva Falla, 40, and his 20-year-old bodyguard was killed in an exchange of fire with the gunmen. Silva's name had appeared on a list circulated in June by rightists saying that all who served communism would be executed.

In a third attack Tuesday, gunmen missed Manuel Villacorta Vielman, former vice presidential candidate from the strongly anti-Communist National Liberation Movement, but wounded his 20-year-old son.

The government says 26 persons have been killed this month by terrorists. The state of alarm proclaimed by the government permits arrests without charges, imposes censorship, prohibits the carrying of firearms except by authorized persons, and bans assemblies of more than four persons.

Webber, a native of Buffalo, N.Y., who listed Houston, Tex., as his home, had been head of the U.S. military advisory group in Guatemala since 1966. Munro, a native of Lake Worth, Fla., with a home in Rockland, Maine, was head of the U.S. naval section. Greene, the group's communications adviser, was from Omaha, Neb. The families of all three men were with them in Guatemala.

First U. S. Victims
Forster, a native of Seattle, is stationed in the Panama Canal Zone with a supply unit, and his wife and three sons are there.

The four men were the first U.S. victims of terrorism in Guatemala although more than 1,000 persons—perhaps as many as 4,000—have died in the last year and a half.

The FAR said Webber and Munro were chosen as targets because Guatemalan army groups created under U.S. orders "dedicated themselves to sow terror and death in the entire country." The group charged that "the genocidal work of such bands of assassins has resulted in the death of nearly 4,000 Guatemalans."

The FAR communique was distributed clandestinely.

Right-wing extremists, who originally organized to fight the leftist guerrillas, would also like to topple the military-backed government of President Julio Cesar Mendez Montenegro, who took office in July, 1966. They feel his government's increased taxation and reforms threaten their traditional privileges.

Priests Seek Role In Naming New Cardinal
NEW YORK (AP) — More than a quarter of the priests in the Roman Catholic archdiocese of New York have signed a petition to Pope Paul VI asking for a role in the selection of a successor to the late Francis Cardinal Spellman.

"We wanted to express our opinion and be consulted," said the Rev. Neil A. Connolly, assistant pastor in a Bronx parish and a member of the five-man steering committee which conducted the secret petition campaign.

A reported 572 priests signed the document, it was learned Tuesday.

The petition, phrased in the diplomatic language of the Vatican, asks the Pope "if we may not submit our talents, our insights, and our entire selves to Your Holiness to assist Your Holiness in any way possible in the provisions for the future of the church in New York."

Cardinal Spellman died last Dec. 2, after heading the Church's richest, most influential American see for more than a quarter of a century.

The archdiocese comprises 10 counties, 407 parishes and 2,246 priests.

The move by the priests for a part in picking the successor comes at a time when the whole system of episcopal selection is under review in connection with a new decentralizing trend in the Church to "collegial" or shared rule.

More Spending, Tax Requests Are Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson gives the nation tonight his formula for balancing the financial demands of the Vietnam war against the need to curb crime in the streets and to rehabilitate riot-breeding city slums.

The President is expected to reiterate in his nationally televised State of the Union message to a joint session of Congress that he is exploring every avenue that might lead to peace.

But advance indications were that North Vietnam's latest stated conditions for opening peace talks—a halt in U.S. bombing of the North and "other acts of aggression"—still was under exhaustive examination.

To an election-year Congress already breathing fire about any increase in spending, the President is expected to disclose that expenditures will be $11 billion higher—possibly a little more—for administrative purposes than in the current fiscal year ending June 30.

GOP Response
Republicans are prepared to respond at once to Johnson's proposals. GOP congressional leaders have slated a news conference for one-half hour after Johnson concludes his speech, and eight Republican governors will jointly discuss the message with newsmen Thursday morning.

A new "unified" budget, taking into account for the first time income and outgo from huge government trust funds, was said to be geared to a "significant drop" below the $18 billion, compared with the $19 billion deficit for this year.

Source reported Tuesday the total spending program definitely will be below $190 billion for the fiscal year beginning July 1. Administrative spending—the basis most commonly used before the advent of the unified budget—was said to run between $145 billion and $150 billion, compared with the current fiscal year total of between $136 billion and $137 billion.

Deficit Expected
The expected deficit would include receipts from a proposed 10 per cent income surtax which Congress shelved last year and which key members predicted won't be enacted this session unless there's an equalized reduction in spending.

With Vietnam war costs expected to rise another $4 billion, Johnson obviously is faced with a need to alter the capitol hill atmosphere if he hopes for acceptance of social welfare programs calling for expensive outlays.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield predicted a safe-streets bill will be high on the list of presidential recommendations.

Mansfield said that when the Senate can untangle itself from a prospective Southern filibuster against a pending civil-rights bill, a housing measure is likely to be the next order of business.

Slum Subsidy
Administration sources predicted the President would support a bill aimed at providing funds for low-income families in urban slums to build their own homes, with the government subsidizing interest charges above three per cent. The issue of funding rent supplements and the antipoverty program will have to be fought out again.

There are reports Johnson will ask for some changes in a higher education bill, to provide aid for lower-middle-income families in financing their children's schooling.

Proposals for child health care for new and expectant mothers may be presented.

The President also has indicated he thinks private industry should do more to make jobs available to slum residents. Tax incentives may be suggested in this field.

Crime Curbs
In the area of curbing crime, Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., predicted Johnson will drop his opposition to court-controlled wiretapping except in national security cases. Poff heads a Republican task force on this issue.

A pending anticrime bill would authorize federal grants

Perch Catches Better On Bay

Ice fishing on Little Bay de Noc is beginning to pick up with reports of some good catches of perch being taken off the Theisen-Clemens oil terminal at Kipling.

The Conservation Dept. reported that some fishermen are getting up to 20 and 30 perch in a day's fishing.

Officers noted, however, that even this is not good by past standards.

Emer White of White's Bay-shore Cabins, Kipling, said that most of the success has been just north of the channel cut by the last tanker into the Theisen-Clemens terminal. He indicated that catches in the past week have ranged from 10 to 15 fish up to about 40. Wiggles have been the best bait with minnows second.

White also said at least three rainbow trout have been taken on hook and line, the largest about five pounds and 22 inches long.

Conservation officers and White added that some northern pike are being caught in the Buckeye area, both on tips-ups and spears.

Travel on the ice is "generally fair," according to conservation officers, although some wind-packed drifts could cause difficulty. Ice on the bay is about 18 inches thick.

White pointed out that fishermen crossing the channel made by the last tanker should be wary of large ice chunks which could damage an automobile.

License Needed
Fishermen were cautioned about traveling in areas of reefs, shoals, river mouths and in the area of the Gladstone power plant.

A license is necessary to fish on Bay de Noc waters, officers said, and fish shacks must be properly labeled on all four sides.

Building Rejected

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — A proposed city-county building has been rejected by the Traverse City City Commission which claims residents felt they would be paying twice for the same building through city and county taxes. City Manager Lawrence Savage said the county would construct the building and lease space to the city.

In Marquette County, Johnson Lake in the Gwinn area has produced excellent catches of rainbow trout — some up to 29 inches long — on wiggles. Northern pike success has been fair on St. John's Lake, Michigan River and Lake Michigan in the Republic-Champion area with tip-ups using smelt and live minnows for bait.

Ice is reported up to 14 inches thick with eight inches snow cover.

to train and equip local police, as Johnson proposed last year. But it goes beyond that to propose legalizing certain retaining operations, removing some restrictions on police questioning of witnesses and making voluntary confessions admissible as court evidence.

Johnson is expected to urge the passage of consumer protection legislation, such as the interest disclosure bill the House may take up later this month. He also probably will push for action on a natural gas pipeline safety measure and a safe bridges bill.

The international monetary situation, which has found the British devaluing the pound and instituting an austerity budget, will focus congressional interest on the President's suggestions for attacking the international exchange balance of payments problem.

Touring Tax?
Johnson may offer several alternatives for reducing tourism which takes dollars out of the country and increases the deficit. Congress appears cool to a proposed head tax on tourists going abroad but might find a selective excise tax on travel tickets more to its liking.

The House Ways and Means Committee, which must grapple with both this issue and the surtax, will have to give attention later on to the controversial question of foreign trade. The reciprocal trade agreements act expired last year and there is no presidential authority to initiate new trade agreements.

But Johnson must send to Congress the results of the Kennedy round of trade negotiations last year. These include controversial agreements to eliminate the American selling price as a base for tariffs on chemicals and some other products.

Any trade bill is likely to be hit in the Senate with a flood of amendments to place import quota restrictions on textiles, oil, steel and a score of other products.

Old Washington School Demolition Job Begins

The Washington School which served education in Escanaba for 69 years began coming down Tuesday afternoon.

Demolition of the building began about 3 p. m. after some usable items such as fire escapes and doors had been removed by McMahon Bros. of Iron River.

The two-story brick building will be razed and the site cleared in six days, according to the contractor. When weather permits this spring, the area will be turned into a playground for children attending the new Washington School.

Constructed in 1898, the school has had over 2,000 students pass through its classrooms. Many of them have seen their children and grandchildren educated in the same classrooms.

"I spent many hours in those rooms," said one man Tuesday.

Many of the young children who attend classes in the new building remained after classes yesterday to watch the old building start to fall.

Contractors used a 2,500 pound ball on a cable swung by a large crane to do most of the damage, although most of the windows in the building had been previously broken by vandals.

Through the gaping holes in the walls, spectators could see alphabet charts and the bare walls where chalk boards used to be.

Fire escapes from the building were removed and will go to the Rapid River school district. Most of the bricks will be hauled by the contractor to St. Anne's School on Escanaba's southside to be used as fill for a playground area.

St. Martin New Seney Supervisor

MANISTIQUE—The Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors Tuesday appointed Clayton R. St. Martin as Seney Township Supervisor to fill the unexpired term of Francis S. Morrison who died Christmas Day.

The board also approved the Michigan Municipal Employees pension plan for county employees, adopted a building permit fee schedule and heard a report by Treasurer William Cowman showing progress toward reducing the county's fiscal deficit.

St. Martin, 50, is manager of the Standard Oil Co. agency at Seney and has served for six years as president of the Seney Board of Education. He also has been a member of the Board of Review for the past three years.

Covers Employees
In the last election, St. Martin was defeated by a narrow five votes in the supervisor's contest.

The pension program approved by the board will cover about 20 county officers and employees. The county contribution will run about $7,000 per year, according to County Clerk Ferdinand Lesica.

Lesica said the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital board and the medical care facility board have adopted the same program.

Fees for building permits will be the same as those already established in the City of Manistique, ranging from $1.50 to $5.

Cowman said that Schoolcraft County ended 1967 with a deficit of $22,812 — a gain from last year's deficit of $27,431. A further reduction by $15,000 is expected this year due to an appropriation by the Board.

Request Aid
In other action, the supervisors referred to the finance and welfare committees a request by Richard Marsh, director of the Senior Citizens Drop-In center, for $1,000 to help defray operational costs from April 1, 1968, to April 1, 1969. The committees will make a recommendation at the Feb. 20 meeting of the board.

Leo DeMars of Manistique, chairman of the county roads committee, was named to represent the county on the Upper Peninsula US-2 Highway Improvement Committee, and Harold O. Carlson, chairman of the airport committee, reported that the new hangar is completed.

The medical care facility currently has 10 patients, it was reported. Additional patients are anticipated when federal approval is received by the facility for medicare patients.

Spalding Given Prison Sentence For Powers B&E

MENOMINEE — William Spalding, 19, of Powers and Gladstone was sentenced to serve from two to 10 years in a state prison by Judge Ernest W. Brown in Circuit Court for Menominee County Tuesday.

Spalding had pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the Big R Cafe at Powers on Aug. 30.

Judge Brown noted that he had placed Spalding on probation for a previous offense at the Powers restaurant.

"You were scarcely out of jail when you went back in trouble," he said.

Spalding has been lodged in the county jail since Sept. 2 and his prison sentence was made effective from that time.

One Man Guilty In Bank Robbery

MARQUETTE — One of three persons charged in the armed robbery Dec. 11 of a Negaunee bank pleaded guilty to bank robbery charges Tuesday in federal court.

John M. White, 22, of Niagara, entered the plea when arraigned before Judge W. Wallace Kent.

Ronald D. Mills, 20, of Helenwood, Tenn., pleaded innocent to a charge of aiding and abetting the holdup.

A 16-year-old boy appeared before Judge Kent in closed session.

The three were arrested Dec. 13 near Niagara. Most of the $6,914 taken in the robbery was recovered.

White told the judge that money had not been counted and that the plan was to divide it three ways. White is married and is the father of one child. He was returned to the Marquette County jail to await sentencing. He faces a 20 year prison term or $5,000 fine or both.

Mills' attorney, S. Neil Lynch, Negaunee, requested a non-jury trial. Harold D. Beaton, Grand Rapids, U.S. District Attorney, said he has not yet agreed to such a trial. Kent said the case will be heard as soon as possible. Mills remained in jail in lieu of $15,000 bond.

Drunk Driving Arrest Brings 30-Day Term

Edward Nedeau, 45, of Pte. 1, Ensign, was sentenced to 30 days in the Delta County jail today after he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving when arraigned before Justice Edward Goldsworthy of Gladstone.

His driver's license also was automatically suspended. Nedeau was arrested by State Police of the Gladstone Post Tuesday night on U.S. 2 and 41 in Brampton Township.

Hail The Packers

The Green Bay Packers have just accomplished the greatest feat in professional football history by winning their third straight National Football League championship and their second consecutive Super Bowl game.

The odds against Green Bay reaching the NFL playoff for the third straight year were astronomical, even without the string of deadly injuries that plagued the Pack in the regular season. But reach the playoffs they did, and Coach Vince Lombardi's football machine registered an historic last-second victory over Dallas for its third NFL title in a row. No team had ever done it before.

For many die-hard Packer fans the Super Bowl was an anticlimax. Their heroes had survived the brutal war of week-in, week-out National Football League competition. They had met and bested the formidable Rams to earn their shot at Dallas, the same team they had sidelined in the NFL title game a year previous. What could the upstart American Football League offer that the mighty Packers had not already conquered?

In retrospect, the faithful fans were right. Oakland is without doubt an outstanding pro football team but it is not in the same class as the Packers. With Bart Starr at the throttle and field goal kicker Don Chandler fueling the engine, the Packers put on a masterful, methodical demonstration of football as it should be played. The Raiders never had a chance.

Green Bay, a metropolitan midget by professional sports standards, has assumed giant proportions in the Vince Lombardi era. The smallest city in the National and American football leagues, Green Bay has shouldered its way to the absolute top in what is regarded by many experts as the toughest of all pro sports.

Lombardi has brought a dedication to football coaching unmatched in athletics. His aggressive, blunt and short-tempered personality, has irritated many newspaper, radio and television people, but there is no question of his stature with his coaching staff and players. It was Lombardi who molded the current Packer powerhouse that refused to buckle in the face of many adversities this season. His position at the top of the coaching profession is unchallenged.

Where will it all end? There is speculation today that Lombardi will step down from his coaching chores and concentrate on his duties as Green Bay's general manager. He has indicated he will announce his decision next month. Whatever he does, there is no reason the Packer dynasty should crumble — Green Bay boasts an imposing blend of brilliant rookies and battle-hardened veterans and Lombardi has a staff of extremely capable assistants.

The Green Bay Packer story is one of the most astounding in professional sports and its impact on this area is beyond measure. Packerland is the envy of every major city in the nation for its unprecedented success in professional football. Green Bay is known the world over as the small town that produces champions — and whose fans give undying support to their team even when their home stadium is frozen into a solid mass of ice by 13 degree below zero weather.

win up with four trump tricks and two aces. If he leads back a spade, the defense won't do as well but at least they will set the declarer.

South will complain about bad luck. East and West will congratulate each other on the fact that they have decided to lead ace from ace-king.

We don't claim complete success for this improved defensive convention. It isn't so outstanding and so important that you are going to gain every time you get the chance to use it. It also has the disadvantage that the ambiguous king lead has been part and parcel of almost every bridge player's kit since the days of whist and that you are likely to forget and lead incorrectly for awhile or your partner may not recognize the meaning of your ace lead; but if you adopt this procedure and work with it for awhile, you won't get confused by it and you will wind up taking more tricks when you are defending.

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
2 ♥ 2 ♥ Pass 2 N.T.
Pass 3 ♥ Pass 4 ♥
Pass 5 ♥ Pass ?
You, South, hold:
♠ 2 ♥ J 4 ♦ K 10 9 5 4 3 ♣ 7 5 4 3
What do you do now?
A—If you have confidence in your partner, raise him to six hearts. Your jack-four of hearts and singleton spade should be of value. However, we wouldn't blame you for passing.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of rebidding three hearts, your partner rebids to three spades. What do you do now?

Thirty Pct. Of Employees Dislike Their Work

Anti-Work Move Weakens America

"We have too many people in this country who think they can work eight hours and sleep eight hours in the same eight hours."

Calvin Dean Johnson, director of customer relations for Remington Rand Office Machines and Office Systems Co., delivered this indictment of a growing number of workers, at a recent national convention.

An apparent "anti-work movement" in America is approaching a critical stage, a nationwide survey by the Family Economics Bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. indicates. The crisis comes at a time when American industry is fighting increasing foreign competition and tight production schedules.

pair," he wrote. "For to reduce everything to a single truth, work is less boring than pleasure."

Millions of Americans would disagree. Nothing, they would say, is more boring than work when it is sliced up into trivial repetitive tasks as many jobs are in our technological society. This is the basic reason why some people are "non-oriented to productivity," as a certain Irish industrialist describes his lazy employees.

One reason for waning work motivation is an increase in job and paycheck security that reduces the urgency about providing for physical needs. A tight labor market makes

Despite the visibility of laziness in America, hard work hasn't gone out of style. Some people still grieve that each day has only 24 hours. They relish challenge and achievement, or they are motivated by altruism or a social consciousness. It never occurs to them not to bolt down their meals and leap out of bed in the morning so they can get on with their work.

They would disagree with Jerome Jerome, English humorist and playwright who died in 1927, who said: "I like work. It fascinates me. I can sit and look at it for hours."

They would agree with Voltaire, the French philosopher, who said: "Not to be occupied and not to exist amount to the same thing."

Nevertheless, the anti-work movement seems to be gaining momentum. The insurance company study concluded. Presumably, this development doesn't bother Richard Bellman of The Rand Corp., who predicts that "... two per cent of the population ... will, in the discernible future, be able to produce all the goods and services needed to feed, clothe and run our society with the aid of machines."

Sick
Not mentioned in this article on the anti-work movement in America is another factor which may be an influence in absenteeism and anti-work in private employment.

It is the protest against the sick leave policies in federal and state employment.

Persons who have occasion to call some federal employees in the weeks before the end of the year are familiar with their absence from employment because they are "using up their sick leave."

Another familiar situation is some retiring state employees who get a check for a large sum representing the accumulated sick leave for a career, being paid off in cash in lump sum that runs into thousands of dollars in some cases.

Sick leave under this practice becomes a fringe benefit, used not to cope with illness, but as an escape from work or as a source of extra income. Private industry employees, seeing their friends in government employment work this bit, become unhappy and wonder if they don't have a sore throat on Monday morning.

Nearly three million employees stretched their weekends by an extra day last summer, according to a national survey. An estimated one-half of them were only sick character-wise.

An "incredible correlation" exists between absenteeism and major sports events, according to Industrial Relations Councilors, Inc., New York. A study in an oil refinery in the southwest uncovered an inverse relation between mean daily temperature and absenteeism rate.

Even when they're at work, many employees are "absent." A personnel man calls this phenomenon "on-the-job absenteeism." In a cartoon the boss is saying to an employee who has asked for a raise: "I know you've been with us 30 years, but how long have you worked here?"

In many offices, factories and stores, the surest way to be blackballed is to voluntarily do more work than required.

By their laziness, employees often are counteracting the effects of routine, isolation and oversimplification produced by modern industrial methods, the Northwestern National Life survey report stated.

Nevertheless, most people must work, whether they like it or not. J. Pieper gave one reason for work in his book, "Leisure, the Basis of Culture." "One must work if not from taste, then at least from des-

CONFIDING IN CLERGYMAN
"See your spiritual adviser."

That suggestion is often made to the man or woman in trouble. If you do talk things over with your spiritual adviser, is the conversation confidential in the eyes of the law? Could a clergyman be ordered to testify in court as to what you said?

Or is this information "privileged" — that is, protected against public disclosure?

The common law, generally speaking, did not recognize any such privilege. Courts were reluctant to give up access to what could be a valuable source of information. Obviously, the more facts available to a court, the better it could do justice—both in punishing the guilty and in freeing the innocent.

However, most states have now passed special statutes (called "priest-penitent" laws) to change the rule. These statutes, in varying degree, grant a privilege of privacy to communications confided to a clergyman.

To be sure, there are still limits on the scope of this privilege. For one thing, information given to a clergyman in an ordinary conversation—not as part of a regular church procedure—is usually not protected.

Thus, a court found no privilege in the remarks of a suspected rapist to a minister, voiced during a casual encounter in a railroad station. The judge ruled that the minister, just like any other citizen, would have to tell what he had heard.

Nor does the privilege apply to a clergyman's general observations, unrelated to any specific admission of wrongdoing.

For example, a court saw no reason why a minister should not give his opinion of the mental condition of a woman whose will was being challenged—an opinion based on long years of acquaintance with her.

But in most situations, the person unbending his failings to his spiritual adviser may count on a legal curtain of privacy. As one court put it: "The human being does sometimes have need of a place of penitence and confession and spiritual discipline. When any person enters that secret Chamber, civil authority turns away its ear."

Dear Ann Landers: I celebrated my 25th wedding anniversary recently by sitting in the living room alone watching TV. My husband sat in the dining room and listened to the radio. He hasn't spoken to me in three weeks. When he had his last temper tantrum he said I answered him sharply. Now he is drinking himself into a stupor. He does this about four or five times a year. His drinking spree lasts from two weeks to a month.

My husband spends most of the winter in bed because he makes enough money so he doesn't have to work all year 'round, yet he criticizes me because I "waste time" on the phone. I keep my home neat and clean and take good care of the children. He is fairly good to them although he blows up at the older one, just as he does with me.

I know I cannot change my husband so I have quit trying. I know, too, that you cannot help me — or him. I guess I had to write because I need someone to confide in. Thank you for listening. — LANSING

Dear Lansing: If you REALLY want to help yourself and your husband, write to Al-Anon. The national headquarters is P. O. Box 182, Madison Square Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. You may not be able to cure him of his alcoholism but you will learn how to have a decent life in spite of it. Furthermore, you will meet many courageous women who have learned to function within the framework of a husband's illness.

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is 22, has his Army service behind him and will finish trade school in March. He met a girl who is 18 and looks like a hippie. She dropped out of high school and does not work because she must "think things through." If she works she cannot pay enough attention to her "thinking."

Yesterday our son said he wants to marry this girl but he can't afford an apartment. He asked if we would let them both stay in his room. The boy has never caused us any trouble. He is a gentle person and we think he just feels sorry for this girl. What shall we do? — PENNSYLVANIA

Dear Ann Landers: My cousin came to visit last week and brought her two children, aged 8 and 10. Our children are 7, 9 and 11. When we sat down to dinner the first night, Mary hauled out a small portable TV set and placed it on the table. I asked her what she was doing. "Oh," she replied, "We always look at TV during dinner. It keeps the kids quiet," with that she flicked on a western and brought the thundering heard and shooting sheriff of Brantree County right into our dining room.

When I told Mary we didn't allow TV during meals, she was not only shocked but indignant. She said dinner time used to give her the screaming meemies. The kids fought and yelled and more food ended up on the floor than in their stomachs. Now there is none of that. I agree it's worth a lot to keep kids quiet at mealtime but I don't go along

The slang expression, "two bits," meaning 25 cents in American money, came to us from the West Indies, where they used Spanish dollars. Dollars there were cut into eight pieces or "bits," each worth 12½ cents, in exchange for American money.

Publicity Alters Life For Doctor Barnard

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — The tall, lean heart surgeon hurried along the corridor toward the small lecture room where television cameras and newsmen were waiting for his daily news conference.

At the door he braced himself, trying to erase the tired lines from his face.

Then his face lit up with a smile of genuine pleasure. Waiting just inside the room were the wife and two daughters of probably his closest friend and colleague, Dr. Marthinus C. Botha.

Ignoring the newsmen, Dr. Christian N. Barnard knelt and hugged Tessa, 9, and Michelle, 7.

The two girls threw their arms around his neck as he asked: "Where have you been? I haven't seen you for ages."

He pointed to the polished table crowded with microphones on the far side of the room lit by the glare of television lights.

"I have to go over there and talk to these people," he said. "But I'd much rather talk to you than any of them, Michelle. Will you come over and sit on my knee?"

Family Stays Out

Elizabeth Botha shook her head. It was enough that her immunologist husband had been caught up in the swirl of publicity that followed the world's first human heart transplant. She wanted herself and the children left out.

Barnard nodded understandingly. He hugged Tessa and Michelle again and wended his way through the crowd to the table.

For him there is no escape. The glare of publicity following the historic operation has changed Barnard's life forever.

No longer is he merely a respected heart surgeon known mainly by specialists in his own particular sphere. He is the man whose name has been splashed across the headlines of newspapers throughout the world, whose flashing smile has been seen by tens of millions on television.

Man Of Year

He is a world celebrity. The mass circulation French newspaper France Soir named him man of the year. Time magazine did a cover story on him. The President of the United States entertained him at his Texas ranch.

Botha probably knows Chris Barnard better than any other man, with the possible exception of the surgeon's younger brother, Marius, who is also a surgeon in the heart transplant team. Botha and Barnard are second cousins, work side by side and often spend their holidays together.

"Has all this sudden fame had any effect on Chris?"

"Won't Ever Change"

Botha's brows furrowed in astonishment at the question.

"Of course not. You can see that, you meet him yourself every day at the press conference."

Does he still manage time to relax with his wife?

"Oh, yes."

But friends and colleagues tell a different story.

Even when he is home his phone rings continually.

Wife Fed Up

Barnard's wife "Loukie" is fed up.

"All I want now is to get back to normal living," she says. She is sick of seeing her husband's face lined with tiredness. She is sick of having to attend endless functions with him. And she is sick of not being able to spend quiet uninterrupted evenings with him.

But until the human heart transplant loses its impact on the public there will be no letup for Barnard. Wherever he goes people will point cameras at him, seek his autograph and ask questions. Wherever he goes there will be interruptions. He has become public property.

Feeling Lonely? 13,600 Groups You Can Join

DETROIT (AP) — Feeling lonely and left out? Dedicated to a cause or business and seeking fellowship?

Then get yourself a copy of the forthcoming 5th edition of the "Encyclopedia of Associations" and take your pick of the 13,600 nonprofit groups listed.

The eight-pound, 1,331 page book is due off the presses Feb. 1 and carries a $29.50 tab.

It opens virtually an unlimited vista for joiners.

If you love apes, for instance, you may be interested in enlisting in the Orangutan Recovery Service. Among its aims is the finding of good homes in reputable zoos for homeless orangutans.

Oppose Topless

Or if you would like to promote and improve the image of a fine old American tradition, maybe the Exotic Dancers League of North America would appeal. It opposes "the trend of waitresses and others in topless costumes."

While it doesn't go for topless waitresses, the league sponsors an annual contest for the "10 Best Undressed." Its members variously are known as ecdy-lasts, strippers and burlesque dancers.

In 1964, when the 4th edition made its appearance, Alcoholics Anonymous stood alone in the anonymous category. But now it is joined by Divorce Anonymous, Gamblers Anonymous, Addicts Anonymous and even the Anonymous Arts Recovery Society.

Mushroom Hunters

The one-time People-to-People Fungi Committee is no more. It has been renamed the North American Mycological Association. It sponsors field trips for amateur mushroom hunters.

For those who qualify there also is The Loyal League of Yiddish Sons of Erin, which has 45 members of the Jewish faith born in Ireland. An annual event is a banquet on St. Patrick's Eve.

Among the section listing trade, business and commercial organizations is Pre-Arrangement Interment Exchange of America, as well as the Life Underwriter Training Council.

War Concern

The new volume lists 39 national civil rights organizations, up from 19 in the 1964 edition.

Nine new listings are of groups concerned, either pro or con, with the Vietnam War. There were none such in 1964.

Another controversy of the day also is involved through the listing of the Population Crisis Committee.

Editor Frederick G. Ruffner Jr., who has parlayed an interest in unusual associations into a unique business for his Gale Research Co., of Detroit, believes "most people have an instinctive urge to join."

1859 Quote

And to back this up he quotes a serious French writer, Alexis de Tocqueville, after a study of America more than 100 years ago.

De Tocqueville, who died in 1859, wrote: "The Americans of all ages, all conditions and all dispositions constantly form associations. . . . Wherever at the head of some new undertaking you see the government of France or a man of rank in England, in the United States you will be sure to find an association."

IMPEACHMENT JURY

Holloway Bid Turned Down

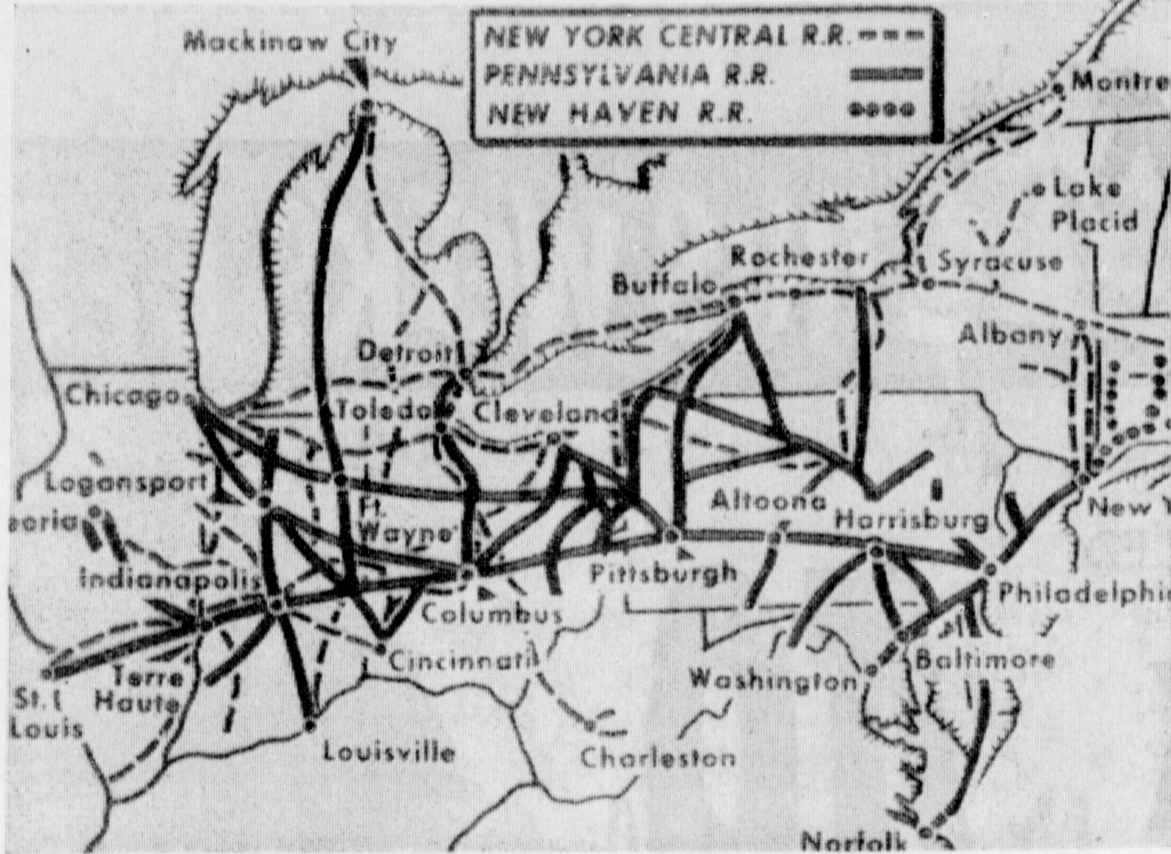

LANSING (AP) — The State Administrative Board Tuesday rejected a Holloway Construction Co. low bid of $1.1 million on a two-mile grading and drainage project on I 75 in Arenac County.

The board's transportation and Conservation committee reported to the board that it did not recommend the bid's approval.

A suit is pending by the attorney general's office to obtain some $320,000 paid to the construction firm in what the state claims were improper overrun payments.

The firm also figures in a request by Gov. George Romney and Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley for a grand jury investigation of alleged improper activities in the State Highway Department.

The board sent the bid back to its committee with instructions that it be returned to the Highway Department.

Tranquilizers Kill 3 Buffalo

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Three Buffalo, weighing from 800 to 1,200 pounds each, died Tuesday after they were administered tranquilizers in preparation for their move to a new pasture.

The shaggy animals required large doses of tranquilizing drugs and succumbed to the effects despite a veterinarian's efforts to revive them with an antidote and stimulant drugs.

The move was prompted by planned construction of a motel on their old pasture.

Credit Card Nixed

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The State Tax Commission says credit cards may not be used for paying state taxes. Chairman Ransom Quinn says there is considerable pressure from banks to permit use of the cards on the theory that banks guarantee the payments.

He says the state wouldn't gain anything by accepting credit card payments.

Jaycees Week

In recognition of the services rendered the community by the Escanaba Jaycees, Mayor Harold Vanlerberghe by proclamation is directing public attention to the observance of Jaycees Week, Jan. 21-27.

One of the major accomplishments of the Jaycees here and across the nation is sponsorship of Distinguished Service Award programs, at which young men who have contributed outstanding community service are honored.

The Escanaba Jaycees Distinguished Service Award dinner program will be held Saturday evening at the Dells. The public is invited.

manufacturing, industrial engineering and marketing assignments.

Arvold received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Arizona and a master's degree from Northwestern University. He is a member of the Dayton Rotary Club, and with his family—his wife and three children—resides in Dayton.

Arvold has advised the Jaycees that he and O. C. Christensen and George Douglas of the Mead Corp. will be present for the banquet program and will reply to questions relating to Mead's announced plans for expansion of its Escanaba Division operations. Arvold said he plans to talk briefly about two subjects:

1 — A corporation's interest in the community in which it operates and its interest in having the employees participate in the affairs of these communities.

2 — A discussion and background "of our Escanaba expansion plans and perhaps have an off-the-record question and answer period on this subject."

"I think that we could make a pretty good stab at answering, on an off-the-record basis, most of the questions that the people might have concerning this expansion project," Arvold added.

Wisconsin Vote Vital To Romney Declares Scott

By The Associated Press

Sen. Hugh Scott says a defeat in the New Hampshire primary wouldn't end Michigan Gov. George Romney's chances of capturing the Republican presidential nomination.

But Scott says a defeat in the Wisconsin primary less than a month later could mean the end of the line for Romney's presidential hopes.

Scott, a Pennsylvanian who has long been a leader in the Senate's GOP moderate contingent, indicated he feels Romney might step aside for another candidate if he loses both the March 12 New Hampshire and the April 2 Wisconsin run-offs.

And if that were the situation, Scott hinted at a Tuesday news conference, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller might be persuaded to enter the race for the nomination.

In the meantime, Scott declared, Romney "is a tremendous fighter when the odds are against him."

Romney, meanwhile, pressed a campaign that is taking him to family living rooms all over New Hampshire.

Romney Encouraged
"I have a feeling that we're really going to score a real upset here," he said. "I am greatly encouraged."

Romney hopes to open 500 neighborhood campaign headquarters in private homes across the state and visit about 150 of them before election day.

The technique—featuring coffee, doughnuts and campaign talk in a relaxed, informal setting—was borrowed from Romney's successful Michigan campaigns.

Scott called his news conference to announce he is contacting Republican governors and senators from Maryland to New York and from New England to Ohio urging them to form a united front and work together to back a candidate and draft a platform at the GOP national convention.

Heart Patient Gains Reported

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Dr. Christiana Barnard said today the next candidate for a heart transplant at Groote Schuur Hospital is "materializing" but a definite decision has not yet been made.

The Cape Town surgeon also announced that his second heart transplant patient, Dr. Philip Blaiberg, is "out of the danger zone."

"He is over the period when he could suddenly get a massive infection," Barnard said of the retired dentist.

The surgeon told a news conference the third transplant at Groote Schuur will not be performed within the next six weeks, and not until he has returned from a trip beginning in late February to the United States, Puerto Rico and "somewhere in South America."

In Stanford, Calif., Mike Kasperak, 54, was reported better though still on the critical list because his body may yet try to reject his transplanted heart.

His doctors said Tuesday he was conscious and responding to instructions.

Michigan Flag Returned From Combat Mission

LANSING (AP)—A Michigan flag, fresh from a combat mission over North Vietnam with a U.S. fighter pilot, was presented to Lt. Gov. William Milliken Tuesday.

The flag, presented to Milliken by Air Force Sgt. Theodore T. Kerr of Royal Oak, was one of two sent to the 390th Tactical Fighter Squadron, stationed at Da Nang Air Base, by Gov. George Romney last year.

Romney often sends state flags to U.S. military units in which Michigan men are serving.

On Dec. 17, Capt. John D. Arnold of Detroit carried both flags while flying a combat mission over North Vietnam in his F-4C Phantom II jet fighter.

The squadron commander, Lt. Col. Wayne T. Elder, explained in a letter to Romney that it was the squadron's wish that Kerr, just returned from a tour in Vietnam, present one flag to Romney in a ceremony commemorating the mission.

Goals Set By Christ The King

At a meeting held Jan. 16 at Christ the King Lutheran Church, the church council and the capital funds committee established their goals for the new church.

The campaign is directed toward three goals: Venture for God, $100,000; Advance toward God, $75,000; Minimum toward God, $55,000.

With the attainment of the Venture goal, the church will fulfill their building program as planned at this time. This is a three year pledge program. Harald Hendrichsen of the Lutheran Laymen's Movement, from Sheboygan, Wis., is the campaign director.

Bonds Approved

CITY OF INDUSTRY, Calif. (AP)—Of the 150 registered voters in the City of Industry, 121 turned out Tuesday and approved an $8.5 million bond issue to build an exposition center and park. City of Industry sprawls over 10 1/2 square miles near Los Angeles and was created mainly for industry.

Superintendent 25 Years:

Gladstone To Honor Cameron On Feb. 12

GLADSTONE — The community of Gladstone has chosen Abe Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12, as the date for a recognition dinner to honor Supt. Wallace Cameron on the occasion of his 25th anniversary as head of the Gladstone public school system.

A native of Gladstone, Cameron has served as superintendent of the local schools longer than any other individual. During those years his influence and the school system which he administered have played a big part in shaping the lives of several thousand young men and women.

More than 1,800 of his students completed their high school education in classes that ranged in number from a low of 50 to a high of 116.

Under his leadership, most of the Gladstone school's physical plant has been replaced. A new physical education building and elementary school buildings have been constructed to accommodate a rapidly expanding educational program.

Cameron is also active in community and church affairs. He has probably served as master of ceremonies, song leader, fun organizer and general "pepper-upper", at more local gatherings than any other individual. He is a past president of the Gladstone Rotary club and heads its youth work committee, and is chairman of Memorial Methodist church board and sings in its choir.

Robert Hupy is general chairman of the Citizen's committee in charge of the affair which will be held in the multi-purpose room of the James T.

College Students Concert Tickets Ready At Door

Bay de Noc Community students, full-time and part-time, who are eligible to attend the Community Concert as part of their student activities program, can pick up tickets prior to the event at the ticket office at the William W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium at the Junior High School.

The Micheal Maule's Dance Variations will be presented Thursday at 8 p.m. Students are urged to attend and should present their college identification cards for admissions.

Three Fishermen Arrested, Fined

Roger J. Tallman, 39, of Munising, was fined $35 and ordered to pay $8.50 court costs after pleading guilty to a conservation charge of using commercial fishing gear in an attempt to take fish without a commercial fishing license.

Escanaba District Law Supervisor Robert Timmer said Tallman was arrested Jan. 12. He was arraigned before Justice Walter Jonas of Munising.

In two other cases, Arnold F. Hintsala, 23, Gwinn, paid a $10 fine and $7.30 costs before Justice Hugo Filizetti on a charge of fishing in inland waters without a license, and David K. Grainsinger, 28, Republic, paid a $10 fine and $7.50 costs after pleading guilty to a charge of failing to put his name and address on all four sides of a fish shack. He was arraigned before Justice Isaac Seppala of Republic.

Briefly Told

Escanaba police have issued a traffic court notice to Richard Thorbjornson of 329 S. 9th St. for failing to yield the right of way.

Mrs. Bruce W. Rossier

Rita Hastings Bride
Of Bruce W. Rossier

Miss Rita Elaine Hastings of Thompson became the bride of Bruce William Rossier of Manistique during a ceremony performed at 4 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 6 at the Zion Lutheran Church of Manistique.

Vases of red roses adorned the altar of the church when Rev. Ingmar Levine officiated at the double ring nuptials. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hastings of Thompson and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alfred Linden, 170 N. Cedar St., Manistique and the late Bruce Rossier Sr.

Peau De Soie

The bride chose a floor length slim line gown of peau de soie fashioned with an Empire lace bodice, long tapered sleeves and a scalloped square neckline. A full length detachable train formed the back detail.

A crown of mock pearl orange blossoms secured her veil of pure silk and she carried an orchid corsage atop a white satin covered Bible.

Mrs. John Garvin served as matron of honor for her cousin and bridesmaid was Janice Rossier, sister of the bridegroom. They wore floor length gowns of blue acetate and nylon styled with long sleeved lace jackets.

Ribbon bow headpieces with nylon veils completed their attire and they carried bouquets of colored mums.

Laurie Stanley and Lisa Schubring, cousins of the bride were flower girls and Boyce and Kirk Cousineau were the ringbearers.

Serving as bestman was Gary Weber and groomsmen was John Garvin. Seating the guests were Paul Ozanich and Martin Cousineau Jr.

Mother's Attire

Mrs. Hastings wore for her daughter's wedding a blue rhinestone button jacket dress with blue accessories and mink hat. She was presented a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Linden chose a beige dress with beige accessories and pinned a red rose corsage.

A reception for 300 guests was held at the K. C. Hall beginning at 6 p.m. with dinner served by the Lutheran Church Women. Assisting with duties were Mrs. Edwin Gundersen, Mrs. Martin Cousineau and Georgeanna Meron.

For her honeymoon trip through Wisconsin and Illinois the bride wore a brown knit suit with tan accessories and was presented an orchid corsage. They will make their home on East Lake Shore Drive, Manistique. Both young people are graduates of Manistique High School.

Credit Card
Training For Future Buying

EAST LANSING—Managing credit cards today can be good training for the future, according to Lucile Ketchum, home management specialist at Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service.

"Bank credit cards are over-abundant today," the specialist said. "But perhaps this is nothing compared to what we'll see as we move into a 'cashless society'—or as some bankers say a 'paperless society'."

She says this type of society is coming fast. It might even be here by the early 1970's.

"Some forecasters say we'll not be handling money at all except for change to use in vending machines, telephones, parking meters and the like. The situation will pose some family money management problems," Miss Ketchum pointed out.

"Spending money can lose all reality when a man's pay is simply credited to his name at the bank and he spends it by punching a button," she continued.

"Handing out cash—or even writing a check—gives more of a sense of money changing hands. For some people, the envelope system of budget control is the only system that's effective. They can see the money allotted for food, fuel and other needs and they know when the supply is getting low."

Miss Ketchum says the wise use of credit is a kind of intermediate step between the envelope system and the "paperless society." She suggested some guidelines for using credit wisely now, and in preparation for what might come in the near future:

—Will the payments fit into the family's regular spending? Will you have to go without necessities or other items that are more important to the family than this purchase?

—How much will the credit cost? What is the difference between the cash price and the price you'll pay if you buy "on time?"

—Will whatever you buy outlast the time you'll be making the payments? It's no fun to pay for "dead horses."

—Is the item something you'll want as much when you're making the payments as you want it right now?

—Will it mean better family living? Save time? Save energy and give satisfaction to the family?

—Is your income certain for the length of time that you'll be making the payments?

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH ALLARD of Rte. 1, Gladstone announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda, to John H. Depuydt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Depuydt of Rte. 1, Escanaba. Miss Allard is a 1967 graduate of Escanaba Area High School and her fiancé is presently attending Bay de Noc Community College. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Humphrey
Can't Keep Gift
Of Big Diamond

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey has been given a large, uncut African diamond she apparently can't keep.

The diamond, a gift from President Joseph Mobutu of the Congo, was presented to Mrs. Humphrey when she visited the Congo with the vice president during their recent nine-nation African tour.

But U.S. law prohibits no American official can accept gifts from foreign leaders valued at more than $50. So the diamond has been turned over to the State Department for safe keeping until it's decided what to do with it.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Flat Rock PTA
Meeting Held

The Flat Rock Parent Teacher Club held its regular monthly meeting in the multi-purpose room of the school on Tuesday, Jan. 16, with vice president, Wayne Christoff presiding.

A topical fluoride program will be started this spring for children in grades kindergarten, second, fifth, eighth and for pre-schoolers if enough interest is shown. Letters are being sent to the homes this week end these must be returned to the school by Jan. 26.

A meeting at the State Office Building in Escanaba is scheduled for Feb. 6 and is sponsored by the Michigan Department of Public Health. Information on topical fluoride programs will be provided.

The room count was won by Donn Hakanson's fifth grade. Mrs. Robert Jensen, program chairman, introduced Steve Baltic and Flat Rock Square Dance Club members who gave a demonstration of square dancing.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of the third grades with room mothers, Mrs. Russell Sargent, Mrs. Robert Jensen, Mrs. Harold Artley and Mrs. Walter Marcella in charge.

MRS. AILEEN WILLETTE of 1133 Washington Ave., announce the engagement of her daughter, Vivian, to Cpl. James L. Paulin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Paulin of 224 N. 20th St. He is presently serving with the U. S. Marine Corps in North Carolina. A July 30 wedding is planned by the couple.

Fashion Previews Return Of The Waist

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Only a catty female judges the age of another woman, but the age of her clothes are fair game.

By the close Sunday night of the style previews held for fashion editors by the New York Couture Group the rules were well established for scoring at a glance the fashion age of a lady's costume.

Try this test:
1. Does the skirt swing? Give the girl a plus for gathers, gores, pleats—boxed, knife and fan—and give her, nowhere else for the shift or sheath.

Rosy Knees
2. Are her knees rosy? Then she has hiked her hemline above the knees for daytime. She's au courant, even though she may be a midi or a maxi hemline advocate, she won't as yet wear these lengths until after the sun goes down this year.

3. Does she have a waist? Though it may be larger than it was before she began to wear tents two years ago, she has it back again, if she's fashion-conscious. Belts, sashes and tucks tell it's there.

4. Are her sleeves midlength? For shame. If she is with it, she will wear wrist length sleeves or none at all.

5. Is her head woolly as a kewpie doll's? Never mind last year's straight boyish look. Never mind the curlers at the breakfast table. She's up to date with her hair style.

Under 40
6. Is her dress black? Careful, this question is tricky. Give her points if she's under 40. Subtract points if she wears black for day and is past that age. It does nothing to improve her coloring.

7. Does she wear white for night? She's an angel, from the fashion designer's point of view. Score her high.

8. Does she wear high heels and pointed toes? She should go to the bottom of the fashion class. She can redeem herself by wearing platform soles, preferably contrasted in color to the shoe itself. Or she can wear squat pumps with bright-colored sculptured heels.

Another press preview, American Designer Series, arranged by Eleanor Lambert, began Sunday and will continue through Friday.

MANISTIQUE Senator Levin Here Saturday

C. Vern Johnson, Schoolcraft Democratic Committee Chairman, announced today that State Senator Sander M. Levin, newly elected Chairman of the Michigan Democratic State Central Committee will be in Manistique on Tuesday, Jan. 23, for a special area conference with northern Democratic Party Leaders, at the court house at 7:30 p.m.

Arrangements for the conference were initiated by Senator Levin immediately after his election as chairman so that he could meet personally with the Democratic County Officers. "There is a need for you (county officers) and I to sit down together and evaluate exactly where we are so that in 1968 we will be able to face the issues and run the kind of campaign that will do justice to our heritage as a party and to the people of the State of Michigan," Senator Levin said in a letter to Democratic Leaders.

The special area conference will include a wide range of leaders in the Democratic Party. State Legislators, former and current congressmen, county and district chairmen State Central Committee members, and elected Democratic officials will meet to discuss problems of party organization, schools for precinct delegates, voter identification, voter registration, get-out-the-vote, and other party problems.

Johnson, in announcing the meeting, said, "We welcome this opportunity to meet with our new State Central Chairman and to discuss party problems. If we are to run a good campaign, if we are to attempt to meet the needs of the people of Michigan we must start now. We look forward to meeting Senator Levin and to a constructive exchange of views."

The Alger-Schoolcraft and Luce-Mackinac Boards of Health are very pleased to announce the removal of the Schoolcraft County offices of the Health Department to their new location in the County Medical Care Facility building on Main Street in Manistique. Doctor Gordon Eadie, Director of the department, stated that he and his staff are very grateful to the people of Schoolcraft County for providing such excellent quarters. He extended an invitation to the public to visit the new offices any day. They are open from 8:30 to 12 and 1:00 to 4:30, Monday through Friday. The phone is 341-5876.

Services offered by the Health Department include the inspection of resorts, restaurants, and other food handling establishments, schools, trailer parks, camping ground, dumps, swimming pools, nursing homes and homes for the aged; also issuing permits for septic tanks and wells and water bottles for testing the safety of water. Nursing services include immunization clinics, home visitation, health education and home nursing; also the examination and follow-up of children in the Head Start program. Consultation is given to the schools regarding health problems. The children in school and staff are given tuberculin tests and hearing and vision testing is provided for the pupils.

Classes are presented for diabetic patients and their families in cooperation with the physicians of Schoolcraft County. Persons traveling overseas must have their vaccination certificates approved at the Health Department. Topical fluoride applications to children's teeth and gums are offered in the county outside the City of Manistique where the water is already fluoridated. These applications are estimated to reduce the cavities in children's teeth by at least 40 per cent.

The Manistique staff of the Health Department in addition to Doctor Eadie includes: Mr. Boyd Briggs, Sanitarian for Schoolcraft and Alger counties, Mrs. Elena Christensen, R.N., Staff nurse, Mrs. Sigrid Jetty, clerk, Mrs. Cecil Keller, Office Manager, Mrs. Helga Sundberg, R.N., staff nurse.

Goodman Party Recalls Start

NEW YORK (AP) — Benny Goodman gave a dinner party Tuesday night in the roof garden of his apartment house and the main course was lively reminiscence.

Among the 100 guests were 13 who performed with "Benny Goodman and His Swing Orchestra" exactly 30 years ago on the stage of Carnegie Hall.

Carnegie now is the scene of rock 'n' roll concerts and country-western song fests, but in those days the stately hall knew only classical music.

Cornetist Bobby Hackett, who did a guest solo with the band at that Jan. 16, 1938, concert, said, "We were all scared and nervous. I was just completely awed to step on a stage where all the greatest famous artists had been. And I was awed by Benny too. He was an idol of mine. He still is."

Goodman recalled, "It was a press agent's dream, going into Carnegie. I was rather reluctant to do it, even though Paul Whiteman had given a concert there."

He was interrupted by jazz historian John Hammond, "That was symphonic jazz. He had a bunch of strings."

Goodman went on, "I tried to get Bea Lillie to tell a couple of jokes, for variety. She declined. I get nervous now when I play a concert. But I don't think I was then."

Drummer Gene Krupa recalled, "It was our regular 14-piece band. In the second half we had some guests appear. I remember it as a pretty thrilling night. I thought that the band played exceptionally well, with a very eager sound."

Martha Tilton, who was Goodman's vocalist in 1938 and sang at Carnegie, greeted old friends. "I came in from Los Angeles especially for this party. I wouldn't have missed it for the world. Benny wrote me a letter. 'Would you believe it has been 30 years?'"

Asked what he remembered, vibraphonist Lionel Hampton said, "I'll tell you that even before that concert, Goodman was the first to have Negro and white musicians playing together. One time in Texas the police said Negro and white couldn't go on the same stage together. The band wouldn't go on until finally they let us all go on. After we played, the ovation must have lasted about an hour."

Germfask Girls Elect Officers

The Germfask Sewing Girls met on Sat. Jan. 13, with their leaders Mrs. Harold Lustila and Mrs. John Wilbrecht at the home of Mrs. Lustila.

Officers of the club were elected as follows: Rachel Burton, President; Diane Lytle, Secretary-Treasurer; Shelley Lytle, Recreation Director and Berdella Zawada, Reporter.

A discussion over naming the club took place and was decided on the Germfask Sewing-A-Longs.

Mercy Flight Saves Child

LOMA LINDA, Calif. (AP) — Maria Simmons, 15 months, swallowed 37 iron pills used to treat adult anemia and was near death. The only known antidote to her iron poisoning was a rare chemical 70 miles away.

There a sheriff's deputy picked up 20 ampules of the chemical, methanp sulfonate, at Childrens Hospital in Los Angeles Tuesday and flew it to Loma Linda University Hospital in 20 minutes.

Later Maria was listed in fair condition. The child's father, Marine Cpl. Orville Simmons, said his daughter found the pills in her mother's purse.

Discharged were: Ella Adkins, Helen Thorell and Herman Sangraw.

Detroit Renewal Firm Approved

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Common Council voted 5-1 Tuesday to reaffirm the Housing Commission's choice of the M.E. development of the multimillion dollar Kern Urban Renewal Block in downtown Detroit.

The Housing Commission originally selected Arden Oct. 5 from a group of six developers bidding on the project. But one of the bidders, Bonan-Schochet of New York City, protested that the commission was unfair in selecting the Detroit firm.

The council action, with Councilman Mary Beck dissenting, followed a three-month investigation.

Farm Numbers Slip In State

LANSING (AP) — The number of farms in Michigan is set at 89,000 in 1968, down from 92,000 in 1967. The farm acreage is estimated at 13.5 million acres, down from 13.7 million acres.

The state crop reporting service says it continues a trend noted since 1933 when there were 200,000 farms in the state. During the same period, however, the average farm size has become larger.

Goalie Stars In Sub Role

TORONTO (AP) — Bruce Gamble wears his sideburns Texas-long and spends a lot of time listening to Western music — when he's not facing the music as back-up man to Toronto's 43-year-old goaltending marvel, Johnny Bower.

Tuesday night, Gamble stood up to the fastest guns in the National Hockey League—East and West—and beat them to the draw. The 29-year-old goalie, starting in place of the injured Bower, spent 40 hazardous minutes fending off superior firepower as Toronto's Stanley Cup champions rallied for a 4-3 victory in the NHL's 21st annual All-Star classic.

Burnett Is First Choice

New Pro Football Team Takes Picks From East

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Cincinnati Bengals are on their way. Now, if Paul Brown's Midas touch only can turn Bobby Burnett's shattered right leg into a healthy limb.

Burnett was the top name among 20 Eastern players selected Tuesday by head coach and owner Brown to stock the American Football League's newest franchise. Brown's 20 Western selections were to be announced today.

Burnett, the AFL's rookie of the year in 1966 with the Buffalo Bills, suffered torn ligaments and a broken right leg in mid-season 1967 and gained only 96 yards rushing.

"There was medical uncertainty as to whether Bobby would be able to help us," said Jack Horrigan, a vice president of the Bills. "Rather than risk losing another player in the draft and then Burnett as well, the decision was made to expose him to Cincinnati."

"It was Gamble that killed us," said Coach Toe Blake of Montreal, whose high-scoring All-Star club peppered the Toronto goaltender with 30 shots in the first two periods but could only beat him twice.

Gamble came up with 17 stops in the opening session and 11 in the middle session before giving way to rookie Al Smith, who sealed the victory with nine saves—including a brilliant stab of a Bobby Hull slap shot in the final minute. All-Star goalies Ed Giacomin of New York, Terry Sawchuk of Los Angeles and Glenn Hall of St. Louis each played one period, combining for 37 saves.

The All-Star — representing the other 11 NHL clubs—spotted Toronto an early goal by Murray Oliver, then shot ahead 2-1 on tallies by Chicago's Stan Mikita, in the final minute of the first period, and Kenny Wharram, in the opening minute of the second session.

Defenseman Allan Stanley's 40-foot scoring drive triggered the Maple Leafs' comeback at 7:56 of the second period and they took the lead nine minutes later when Pete Stenkowski poked in Wayne Carleton's rebound.

Ron Ellis scored the deciding Toronto goal on a Frank Mahovlich rebound early in the final period before Detroit's Norm Ullman countered for the Stars.

Freehan Figures Tigers Will Win American League Race This Year

DETROIT (AP) — Catcher Bill Freehan, named Tiger-of-the-Year, by the Detroit chapter of the American Baseball Writers Association, is optimistic about his team's chances in the American League pennant race this year.

"We're going to win the thing," Freehan said Tuesday night at the chapter's dinner in Detroit. "The young catcher, who batted .282 last year following two straight sub .240 seasons, said 'they don't give awards like this to 235 hitters.'"

Freehan expressed complete confidence in the Tigers' chances this season, pointing out that "people began to believe in the team during the September pennant drive."

I only hope that they continue to hold the feeling that we can win this year. We've got a young team . . . and if it gets close again, we've been there before."

The Tigers finished second to the American League champion two years ago, gained 766 yards on 187 rushes and helped the Bills to the AFL's Eastern crown in 1966. His injury was one of a rash that sent Buffalo tumbling towards the bottom of the Eastern Division last season.

Brown is taking a chance that Burnett can overcome his injury and return to top form. He's also taking a shot in the dark on another Eastern choice, Boston's Joe Bellino.

Used almost exclusively on kickoff and punt returns with the Patriots, Bellino has never achieved in pro football the star status he enjoyed during his collegiate days at Navy.

In addition to Bellino, the Patriots surrendered halfback J. D. Garrett, defensive tackle Jim Boudreaux and defensive back Ron Hall.

Gary Bugenhagen, Buffalo's No. 4 draft pick last season and an All-American at Syracuse, heads the Eastern linemen chosen by the Bengals.

Bart Confesses He's Great Fan

NEW YORK (AP) — Bart Starr, No. 1 matinee idol of the nation's arm-chair football buffs, made a confession today — he's a football television fanatic himself.

"When I'm not busy playing or practicing, I plant myself in front of the screen and watch until I'm half-blind," the star quarterback of the Green Bay Packers said.

"I watch anything connected with football—high school games, college, pros—afternoon, morning and night, it makes no difference. I love it. "A strange thing, too. I become a fan. I don't second-guess. I seldom criticize. I just sit there and enjoy it."

Northern Trims Michigan Tech

HOUGHTON (AP) — Terry King hit for 30 points to lead Northern Michigan to victory over Upper Peninsula rival Michigan Tech in a nonconference basketball game Tuesday night, 83-69.

Northern, from Marquette, led at halftime, 39-30, as it collected its eighth win of the season against two defeats. Tech has only one victory and seven defeats this season.

Craig Farrell had 21 points to lead Tech scorers.

Ten hoopsters played for Marenisco and all of them scored, including one from the B Team playing in his first varsity encounter.

Rockets Defeat Carney Quintet

RAPID RIVER—The Rapid River Rockets took time off from their Central League duties here last night to pin a 78-68 setback on Carney of the Big Six Conference.

Coach Bob Debelak's Rockets, top team in the Central race, buried the Wolves in a 22-7 hole in the first period and the visitors were never able to recover.

The Rockets put on a blazing performance from the field where they connected on 33 of 54 shots for 57 per cent. Pacing the effort was Mike Sigfrids, 6 foot junior who had the best night of his prep career with 14 buckets and a free throw for 29 points while pulling down 13 rebounds. Clint Safford and Allan Pasi added 14 points each and Tom Novak chipped in with 11. Tom Safford, replacing the injured Dale Morin, came through with eight.

The setback snapped a three game winning string for Coach Bob Kuntze's Carney quint. Four Wolves reached double scoring figures, led by Al VanHorn and Bill Berto with 16 points each.

Smoker Offered Help In Kicking The Habit

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS saved the best part until last in its Tuesday night "National Smoking Test." That was the portion that had the smoker answering questions about his "smoking profile"—and there was an expert on hand to clue him on the first steps in breaking the habit.

Dr. Daniel Horn of the U.S. Public Health Service said some groups of smokers—those who enjoy handling cigarettes, those who smoke for sheer pleasure or just habit—may either taper off or find satisfying substitutes. The psychologically addicted, he said, are the ones who have trouble and they must go the cold turkey route: just stop.

The program did not lecture viewers on the problem but was loaded with material, presented in both question and answer form, which described smoking as a health hazard.

Convention Change

ABC has removed itself from the usual three-network competition in covering next summer's presidential conventions. While NBC and CBS plan to provide gavel-to-gavel coverage, ABC will handle conventions with nightly programs of 90 minutes while the politicians are gathered.

The network decision will be greeted happily by many viewers who complained in the past that they had no choice of programs when all three networks were covering the events. Certainly there have been long hours when the conventions were pretty boring. If the ABC method of doing nightly highlights and analyses works out, it is not inconceivable that the other two networks would make some adjustments four years hence.

Fans Protest

NBC and television columnists all over the country have been bombarded for the past several months with letters from "Star Trek" fans expressing alarm over a report that the science fiction series would be canceled.

The letter campaign comes at a time when network executives are planning next season's schedules. Within the next few days, a decision will be made whether to give "Star Trek" a third network season or drop it at the end of summer reruns.

The program actually has an excellent chance for survival. In the three-cornered network fight for audiences, it usually comes in second—and the tough competition is CBS's "Gomer Pyle" and feature movie.

NBC, too, is happy that the series has a special appeal to what the researchers call a "quality audience."

Concerned With Cost

Networks make their program decisions with the help of information gathered by research outfits. And most sponsors who scatter their messages over programs, are concerned with the

Mergers Change Business Scene

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Big as it is, the impending merger of the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads into a $4.35-billion colossus is almost routine as mergers go today. It is the marriage of two of the same species and it follows a long engagement.

Consider, however, some of the big mergers or proposals of the past couple of years: cigarettes and whisky, telecommunications and car rentals, aerospace products and meat packing—all vastly different species.

Now consider also the speed with which these mergers took place: in weeks instead of the six years it has taken the Pennsy and Central to obtain parental approval from the government following their announcement of intentions.

It is a rare day, in fact, when two important corporations do not announce intentions. On the very day the Supreme Court cleared the way for the Penn-Central merger, for example, a food company proposed to a shirt manufacturer.

Become Routine

As a result, business news pages have taken on a society page look. So routine have merger announcements become that a stranger to this world might assume that the business of business is to merge.

There is often a primitive quality about these unions, with the management of an acquired company often fighting and kicking and resisting the marriage right up to the time stockholders approve it.

It is clear then that the coming marriage of the Pennsy and Central, although more than 74 months in the works and involving 40,000 miles of track, 127,000 shareholders and 106,000 employees, is conventional if not routine.

Grow By Merging

In this day and age of mergers, and 1966 and 1967 were the most active in many years, the tentacles of one corporations spread out into hundreds of industries. If graphically depicted, in fact, they would resemble the route made of the Penn-Central.

Litton Industries, whose phenomenal growth from sales of $8.7 million in 1955 to well over $1 billion last year was accomplished largely through mergers, has so many different products and services that it takes close to 1,000 words for Standard & Poor's business directory to list and describe them.

Its 80,000 or so employees work at close to 200 plants, laboratories and offices in at least 30 states, the District of Columbia and 24 foreign countries.

New Type Company

This new species of corporation is impossible to name with the old terms. It is not just a retailer, wholesaler, manufacturer, researcher, food maker, steel manufacturer. It is all these rolled into one and so is identified by the term conglomerate.

But even within the conglomerate category there are refinements, if the term may be used. Some are amalgamations of relatively independent firms, others are pyramids of tightly related companies reporting to one office at the top.

Some Fall

As expected, some of these polygamous marriages fail. A management firm found that of 120 acquisitions between 1960 and 1965, 11 per cent were later sold or liquidated. Another 25 per cent were judged of doubtful worth.

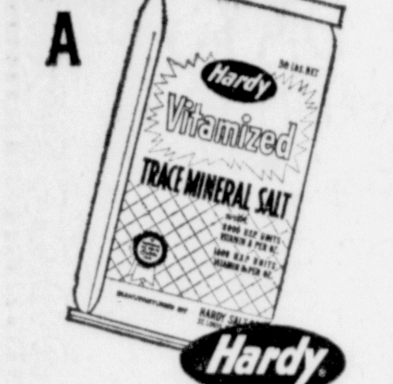

Nevertheless, the majority of these marriages stick, and for very good reasons, primarily because the conglomerate often has greater earnings than the previous total earning of all its ingredient companies.

Ionia Worker Gets Probation

IONIA (AP)—Marvin Kueick, 43, of Ionia was sentenced Tuesday for embezzling money from the patient store of the Ionia State Hospital.

Circuit Court Judge Leo B. Bebeau sentenced Kueick to one-year probation. Bebeau also ordered him to repay $311 missing from the store, a fine of $500 court costs and oversight fees of $1,000, plus 10 per cent of the fine to the State Police Education Fund.
